

Develop your talent today, shape the supply chain of the future.

The Program for Management Development (PMD) is a junior management development program with a mission to acquire and develop high potential talent for the continued success of our global supply chain business.

The recruitment for the 2019 Intake starts in September 2018.
Visit our website to learn more!

