

COMPLIANCE INTERNSHIP

Company description:

TekID is a newly funded Shanghai startup specialized in Cyber Threat Intelligence and Innovation Risk Assessment. With the development of today's digital world, new threats and risks emerge every day. Our team of specialists operate in every field from legal consulting to data recovery and investigation.

Job Overview:

We are looking for an Intern for our Compliance department. He\She will be responsible for activities from Internet researches to report drafting. The intern will have the opportunity to develop him/herself in professional compliance skills

You can learn:

- Sense for digital risk intelligence consulting firm.
- Understanding of TEKID "AIM" methodology in digital risk intelligence.
- Soft skills in business operations / professional communication.

Requirements:

- Attention to details and able to read and master domestic and international regulations, Laws and rules that related to cyber security
- Like team work and communication
- Well time management and can be able to process multi-task at same time
- Highly self-motivated and able to work independently
- Good internet research skill
- Good English skills (preferred to reading and writing)
- Skilled user of Microsoft Excel and other office series
- Able to commit at least 3 days per week

Salary and compensation:

2,000 RMB per month. 8 hours/day work with flexible working time.

Starting date: ASAP

Please send your CV and application letter to contact@tek-id.com